

K-LOVE is one of the few radio stations available that plays Christian music and provides positive, encouraging information for my family. It does not include offensive material in its format..it is safe listening for my children. Availability of this type of programming is essential if we are to raise the next generation with values and a conscience. It also provides good, clean, entertainment. Please take all necessary steps to protect the priority of radio stations such as K-Love. Thank you!